The Harvard International Law Journal is published semiannually by Harvard Law School students.

Submissions: The Harvard International Law Journal welcomes articles from professors, practitioners, and doctoral degree candidates of private or public international law, as well as other related disciplines. Footnotes must conform with The Bluebook: A Uniform System of Citation (20th ed.), and authors should be prepared to supply any cited sources upon request. All manuscripts submitted become the property of the ILJ and will not be returned to the author. Authors must also ensure that their submissions include a direct email address and phone number at which they can be reached throughout the review period.
